UNITED NATIONS ANGOLA VERIFICATION MISSION

Report of the Secretary-General

Addendum

1. As indicated in paragraph 60 of my main report (S/24858), I stated that it was not possible to say at the present time whether my efforts and those of interested Member States would succeed in persuading the Government and the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola (UNITA) to reactivate the peace process and put behind them the errors and tragedies of recent weeks. I was not yet therefore in a position to provide the Security Council with the long-term recommendations requested in paragraph 2 of Council resolution 785 (1992). Accordingly, I recommended that the Council decide to extend UNAVEM II, with its existing mandate, for a further period of two months, until 31 January 1993.

2. Should the Security Council approve my recommendation to extend the existing mandate of UNAVEM II for a further period of two months until 31 January 1993, it is estimated that the cost associated with this extension would amount to some $12.4 million. A breakdown of the estimated cost by main categories of expenditure is provided for information purposes in the annex to the present addendum.

3. It would be my recommendation to the General Assembly, should the Security Council decide to extend the existing mandate of UNAVEM II, that the additional cost relating thereto should be considered an expense of the Organization to be borne by Member States in accordance with Article 17, paragraph 2, of the Charter of the United Nations and that the assessments to be levied on Member States be credited to the UNAVEM special account.
